Support for chapters and members—care that stays off campus

Fraternity and sorority life brings connection—and real pressure. Joy Mental Health Group offers private, confidential outpatient care near campus for stress, anxiety, depression, relationships, and substance concerns. Therapy for ages 4+ through adults (with a strong focus on young adults and college students), plus assessments and telehealth medication (ages 6+) when you need them.

NOW ACCEPTING Immediate clinician availability. More than 20 clinicians, including 6 who specialize in assessment, so members can get seen quickly—without a long wait.

HOW WE CAN HELP

- Therapy for stress, anxiety, depression, relationships, and substance concerns
- Psychological assessments for ADHD, autism, test accommodations, and related needs
- Medication management via telehealth only (Stephen Ereg, FNP-C)
- Private outpatient care near campus—a discreet option outside chapter and campus offices

FOR CHAPTERS & MEMBERS

- A warm, straightforward fit for chapter leadership pointing a member toward care
- Young adults and college students are a core focus (practice also serves ages 4+)
- Four offices minutes from major Michigan campuses
- Clinical Director Adam Joy, PsyD

No physician portal needed—members can find a therapist and get started themselves.

INSURANCE We accept BCBS and other major commercial insurance.
