Mental health support near MSU when school alone can't provide

Counselors, social workers, and administrators see students struggling with anxiety, mood, attention, trauma, or family stressors that show up in the classroom. Joy Mental Health Group offers outpatient therapy for children age 4 and up, plus psychological assessments (ADHD, autism, test accommodations, and more) and medication management (telehealth only) for ages 6 and up—right here in East Lansing—so families have a clear place to turn.

NOW ACCEPTING Immediate clinician availability. Our team of 20+ clinicians brings a variety of expertise—including 6 who specialize in assessment—so people can get seen quickly. Therapists and medication providers are ready for new referrals without a long wait.

WHY SCHOOLS REFER

- Outpatient therapy and assessment for school-age children and teens when in-school supports aren't enough
- Assessments for ADHD, autism, test accommodations, and related needs—plus therapy for anxiety, mood, behavior, and adjustment
- Easy handoff for families: phone, fax, or online referral—plus a fit flow for parents at ChooseJoyMi.com/fit/
- Local in-person care at our East Lansing office near MSU and Eastwood Towne Center, with telehealth as available

WHO WE SERVE

- Students as young as 4 through high school and beyond
- Children and teens who need therapy, assessment, telehealth medication evaluation, or a combination
- Families seeking community-based care outside the school day
- Care led by Adam Joy, PsyD; medication by Stephen Ereg, FNP-C (telehealth only)

We partner with families—you stay focused on learning.

INSURANCE We accept Aetna · Blue Cross Blue Shield · Blue Care Network · Optum · UnitedHealthcare · Meritain Health · Health Alliance Plan · McLaren Health Plan · Medicaid · Auto insurance (accident-related) · Cash pay.
