Community outpatient care when campus services need a next step

Campus counseling centers often need trusted community partners—for waitlist overflow, longer-term therapy, ADHD testing and evaluations, telehealth medication management, or students who prefer off-campus care. Joy Mental Health Group helps college students with a straightforward referral process at offices minutes from major Michigan campuses.

NOW ACCEPTING

Immediate clinician availability. 20+ clinicians, including 6 assessment specialists, are ready for new referrals—without a long wait.

WHY COUNSELING CENTERS REFER

- Outpatient therapy and assessment, plus telehealth-only medication management, for college students and young adults
- A clear option when session limits, acuity, or wait times call for community referral
- Assessments for ADHD, autism, test accommodations, and more—plus therapy for anxiety, depression, and life-transition concerns
- Four offices close to campus communities across Ann Arbor, East Lansing, and Metro Detroit

WHO WE SERVE

- Young adults and early career professionals
- Students needing ongoing therapy, assessment, telehealth medication management, or a combination
- Clients stepping down from higher levels of care or bridging campus waitlists
- Clinical Director Adam Joy, PsyD; medication provider Stephen Ereg, FNP-C (telehealth only)

We make off-campus referral simple and professional.

INSURANCE

In-network with BCBS, BCN, Aetna and others for select clinicians. Call us to check your coverage before your first visit. Cash pay is an option for added confidentiality and convenience.
